

80th ANNIVERSARY OF WORLD WAR TWO

Talks and Discussion to mark local events around WW2

Farnborough Library Saturday 23rd February at 2:30pm

Murray Rowlands author of 'Hampshire at War 1939-45'

Graham Rood author and researcher at FAST – The RAE in WW2

Lorna Barnes teacher and lecturer – Living through the Blitz

This is a significant year marking the beginning of a terrible World War bringing with it the threat of invasion from Nazi Germany. During the afternoon we seek to identify the crucial events associated with the advent of War and how it changed the lives of a whole community.

Sponsors: Hampshire Libraries and Rushmoor Council

Murray Rowlands' recently published book 'Hampshire at War 1939-45' highlights the crucial role Hampshire played in the conduct of WW2.

